

The Perfume of Al-Andalus — Seville, Córdoba & Granada

Destination: Spain    Duration: 7 days - 6 nights

A 7-day land journey through the heart of Al-Andalus — Seville, Córdoba, and Granada, with the Mediterranean towns of Nerja and Málaga — tracing the Andalusian heritage of southern Spain, for agencies and groups to tailor and resell, operated end to end on the ground.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Seville: Plaza de España, the Santa Cruz quarter, and the Real Alcázar (subject to availability)
- Seville's Cathedral and the Giralda tower (exterior)
- Córdoba: the Mezquita-Catedral (subject to availability), the Judería, and the Calleja de las Flores
- Córdoba's Roman Bridge over the Guadalquivir and the old city
- Granada: the Alhambra and the Generalife gardens (subject to availability)
- The Albaicín quarter and sunset over the Alhambra from the Mirador de San Nicolás
- Mediterranean Andalusia: Nerja's Balcón de Europa and Málaga's old town

WHO THIS PROGRAM IS FOR

Travel agencies, tour operators, and cultural or educational groups looking for an Andalusian heritage circuit across southern Spain — Seville, Córdoba, Granada, and the coast — ready to tailor to your group's size, dates, pace, and hotel category.

DAY 1    Arrival in Andalusia — Seville

Arrival in Andalusia and transfer to Seville (about 2–2.5 hours). Seville is the soul of southern Spain — a city of palaces, gardens, old lanes, wide squares, and music. Check-in at the hotel and time to rest, followed by a gentle evening walk to take in the city's lively, illuminated squares and open-air cafés.

DAY 2    Seville: capital of Al-Andalus

After breakfast, a panoramic tour of Seville, then Plaza de España — one of Europe's most beautiful squares, with its arches, canals, and coloured tilework — and the green Parque María Luisa. Discover the Santa Cruz quarter, the old heart of the city, and visit the Real Alcázar (subject to ticket availability), a jewel of Mudéjar architecture. See the Cathedral and the Giralda tower (exterior). Free time in the centre and an evening walk through historic Seville.

DAY 3    Seville to Córdoba

After breakfast, drive to Córdoba (about 1.5–2 hours). On arrival, visit the Roman Bridge over the Guadalquivir, with views of the old city and the Mezquita-Catedral, and the Calahorra Tower (exterior). A walk through the old town, then hotel check-in and free time, with an evening stroll around the Roman Bridge and the historic centre.

DAY 4 Córdoba, city of knowledge

After breakfast, visit the Mezquita-Catedral of Córdoba (subject to ticket availability), one of the greatest monuments of Al-Andalus with its forest of red-and-white arches. Continue to the Judería (Jewish quarter) and the famous Calleja de las Flores, and the Alcázar de los Reyes Cristianos (subject to time and ticket availability). A tour of Córdoba's squares and Andalusian courtyard houses, free time in the old city, and an evening walk.

DAY 5 Córdoba to Granada

After breakfast, drive to Granada (about 2–2.5 hours), the last Muslim capital of Al-Andalus, set at the foot of the Sierra Nevada. Hotel check-in and free time, then Plaza Nueva and a walk along Calle Calderería and the old markets — tea houses, traditional crafts, and Andalusian-Moroccan flavours. An evening walk through the lively old town.

DAY 6 Granada: the Alhambra & the Albaicín

After breakfast, visit the Alhambra (subject to ticket availability) — the crown of Granada, with its Nasrid palaces, courtyards, fine stuccowork, and serene gardens — and the Generalife gardens (subject to Alhambra tickets). Note: because of very high demand and limited tickets, the Alhambra visit can only be guaranteed once tickets are officially confirmed; early confirmation is recommended. Continue to the Albaicín, a UNESCO-listed quarter of white houses and winding lanes, and the Mirador de San Nicolás for the famous view of the Alhambra against the Sierra Nevada — especially beautiful at sunset. Free time and an evening walk.

DAY 7 Nerja, Málaga & departure

After breakfast, drive to Nerja (about 1.25–1.5 hours), a pretty Mediterranean town, and its famous Balcón de Europa viewpoint over the sea. Continue to Málaga (about 45 minutes–1 hour) for the Islamic Alcazaba (subject to time and ticket availability) and the lively historic centre, with free time before the transfer for departure, at the close of the program.
