WHO THIS PROGRAM IS FOR

Built for travel agencies and tour operators assembling group departures that want Jordan's greatest hits in one comfortable, well-paced circuit — Petra, Wadi Rum, the Dead Sea, and the Red Sea alongside the Roman north.

Its blend of archaeology, natural wonders, and sacred sites of the prophets and companions makes it especially well-suited to faith-conscious groups, while remaining a strong classic-highlights tour for any leisure group of around 30 travellers.

- Enter Petra through the towering Siq to the sudden reveal of Al-Khazneh, the Nabataean Treasury carved into rose-red rock
- Wander Jerash, the 'City of a Thousand Columns' and one of the best-preserved Roman cities in the world
- Ride 4x4s across the red sands of Wadi Rum and sleep under a canopy of desert stars
- Stand on Mount Nebo where the Prophet Moses is said to have looked out over the Holy Land
- Float effortlessly on the mineral-rich waters of the Dead Sea, the lowest point on Earth
- Glass-bottom boat over the coral reefs of the Red Sea at Aqaba
- Visit the sacred sites of the Companions at Mu'tah and Al-Mazar and the Quran-referenced Cave of the Sleepers
- Explore Madaba's famed 6th-century mosaic map and the crusader-era Kerak Castle along the King's Highway

DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARYDAY 1 Arrival in Amman

Arrive at Queen Alia International Airport, where your local guide welcomes the group before the transfer to the hotel to settle in and rest. Time permitting, the day closes with an evening viewpoint over the illuminated capital from the Amman Citadel. Amman, Jordan's capital and largest city, blends deep history with modern energy — built across seven hills and layered with remains from the Roman era to today. (Dinner)

DAY 2 Jerash, Ajloun, the Cave of the Sleepers and Amman

A full day heading north through the kingdom. Visit the Roman city of Jerash — one of the most complete Roman cities surviving anywhere, with its oval plaza and colonnades, colonnaded street, theatres, and two-thousand-year-old temples — then the Ayyubid castle of Ajloun, built in the time of Saladin to watch over the region's routes. On the way back, stop at the Cave of the Sleepers (Al-Raqim), referenced in the Quran, before touring Amman's landmarks: the Citadel, the Roman Theatre, and the downtown. (Breakfast, Dinner)

DAY 3 Amman to Petra via the King's Highway

Travel south along the historic King's Highway toward Petra. Visit Madaba, the 'City of Mosaics,' famous for its 6th-century mosaic map of the Holy Land — among the oldest known maps of the earth — then Mount Nebo, where the Prophet Moses is said to have stood overlooking the Jordan Valley, the Dead Sea, and Jericho. Continue to the medieval Kerak Castle, a hilltop fortress blending Crusader and Islamic architecture, and to Mu'tah and Al-Mazar, site of the famous Battle of Mu'tah and the shrines of the Companions Ja'far ibn Abi Talib, Zayd ibn Harithah, and Abdullah ibn Rawahah, before reaching Wadi Musa at Petra. (Breakfast, Dinner)

DAY 4 Petra — A Full Day in the Rose-Red City

A full day in Petra, one of the New Seven Wonders of the World and the Nabataean capital carved into rose-red stone. Enter through the Siq, the narrow rock corridor, until Al-Khazneh (the Treasury) appears in all its grandeur — a facade nearly forty metres high carved with astonishing precision as a royal Nabataean mausoleum. Continue along the colonnaded street to the theatre, royal tombs, and temples, with an optional climb to the Monastery (Ad-Deir) and a distant view of the shrine of the Prophet Aaron atop Jebel Haroun. In the evening, an optional 'Petra by Night' experience by candlelight. (Breakfast, Dinner)

DAY 5 Petra to Wadi Rum

Heading south, stop at Little Petra, a small Nabataean site that once served as a trading suburb for caravans, with facades and temples carved into a narrow rock passage. Then enter the enchanting desert of Wadi Rum — the 'Valley of the Moon' — a protected desert and World Heritage site of soaring cliffs and red sand. Ride 4x4 vehicles among the red mountains, dunes, and ancient inscriptions, witness an unforgettable sunset, and spend the night at a desert camp with a traditional Bedouin dinner beneath a sky full of stars. (Breakfast, Dinner)

DAY 6 Wadi Rum to Aqaba on the Red Sea

Leave the desert in the morning for Aqaba, Jordan's gateway to the Red Sea. Enjoy its warm, clear waters and coral reefs on a glass-bottom boat tour, then set aside time to relax on the beach. Aqaba is Jordan's only coastal city on the Red Sea, combining beaches, reefs, and history in a warm climate year-round. (Breakfast, Dinner)

DAY 7 Free Day in Aqaba

A day for leisure and rest in Aqaba: swimming and water sports for those who wish, a stroll through the city's markets and cafés, or simply unwinding on the beach in the calm atmosphere of the Red Sea. (Breakfast, Dinner)

DAY 8 Aqaba to the Dead Sea

Head north through Wadi Araba — the great rift valley of unique desert scenery stretching between Aqaba and the Dead Sea — to the Dead Sea itself, the lowest point on Earth at around 430 metres below sea level. Experience the unique sensation of floating on its intensely salty waters and enjoy its mineral-rich therapeutic mud and resort facilities. (Breakfast, Dinner)

DAY 9 Departure

After breakfast, and depending on your return flight time, transfer to Queen Alia International Airport — with an optional stop en route at the shrine of the Prophet Shu'ayb near As-Salt — carrying home memories of a journey that gathered history, spirituality, and the beauty of the land. (Breakfast)
